Dear Parents/Carers,

National Crime Agency Advice

There have been recent news reports regarding a large increase in incidents of children and young people being forced into paying money after someone has threatened to release nudes or semi-nudes of them. This is often referred to as 'sextortion' in the media and is causing global concern.

The National Crime Agency have released guidance to all schools and colleges about this form of child sexual abuse and have asked for their letter of advice and guidance for parents/carers to be shared.

Please take time to read this and use the discussion points to open conversations with your child about online activities. You will also find guidance on how to support if your child was ever concerned about this.

Our online safety page on our school website has direct links to CEOP, Report Remove and Take It Down, as well as the Internet Matters website which are all referred to in this letter.

We hope you will find this important advice helpful as we work together to continue to support our young people to remain safe.

Yours sincerely,

Mrs H Mynott
